How we do the magic?

Page one

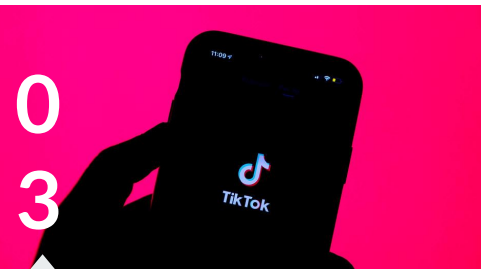

SOCIAL MEDIA MANAGEMENT

Expand your reach and build a strong brand. We create more than just attractive posts – we build your digital footprint. Our AI-supported tool studies the competition and reveals key strategies for your success. We understand the power of social media lies in authenticity and connecting with your target audience.

EMAIL MARKETING

Email marketing is dead,' said an entrepreneur... who filed for bankruptcy the next day. On the contrary, email marketing is alive and thriving like never before! This tool is essential for building lasting relationships with customers and is indispensable for every successful business

SHORT FORM CONTENT

Catch attention in a second – with the power of short video content. In a world where attention is currency, short content is king. We create content that attracts, entertains, and convinces, regardless of the platform

Choose tailor-made services that fit your needs. Our boutique agency uses AI technology to craft unique solutions that are perfectly tailored to your business. Your success is our priority!

No Long-Term Commitments ▼

Flexibility without long-term contracts! We work according to your wishes and needs – without unnecessary complications. Our goal is to create results that speak for themselves, with the option to adjust the collaboration according to your business goals.

Weekly Reporting ▼

Weekly progress reports, delivered directly to your app. Transparency and insight into real-time results, keeping you a step ahead of the competition. Our reporting is clear, accurate, and always focused on improvements.

Partnership Approach ▼

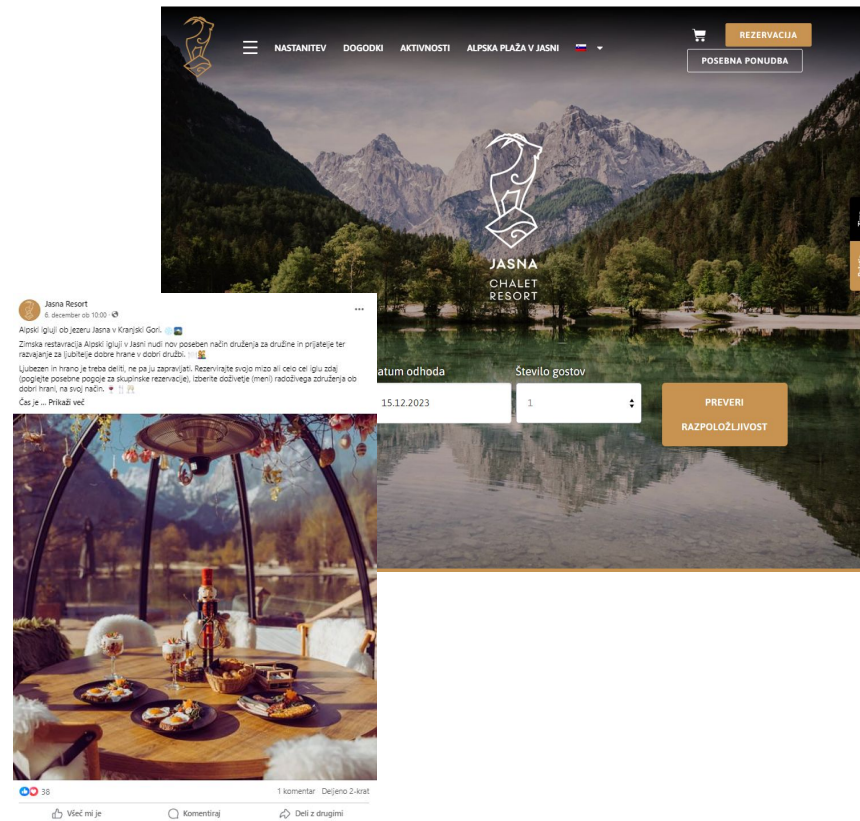

We act as your business partner, without an ownership stake. We ensure your budget is directed towards profitability and growth. Our commitment is to act in your best interest, focusing on long-term successes.

Our latest clients

Jasna Chalet Resort

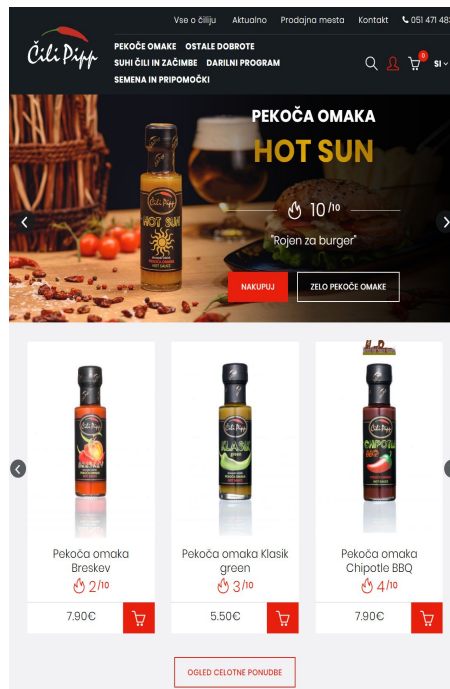

From the first guest to becoming the largest provider of hospitality and accommodation services. Our main task was to create a recognizable brand in Slovenia and Western-Central Europe. Through the use of influencers, branding on social networks, and advertising, we have succeeded in creating a recognizable brand in the Alpine region of Slovenia.

Our latest clients

Čili Pipp Hot Sauces

From branding to sales. The task was to make the brand of the most popular hot sauces in Slovenia more accessible to the majority in Slovenia. Since sales were also carried out in stores like Aldi and Lidl, it was necessary to have both branding on social networks and accelerated advertising on Facebook and Google for direct sales on the website.

Our latest clients

LCHF-STYLE web store

Google Campaigns

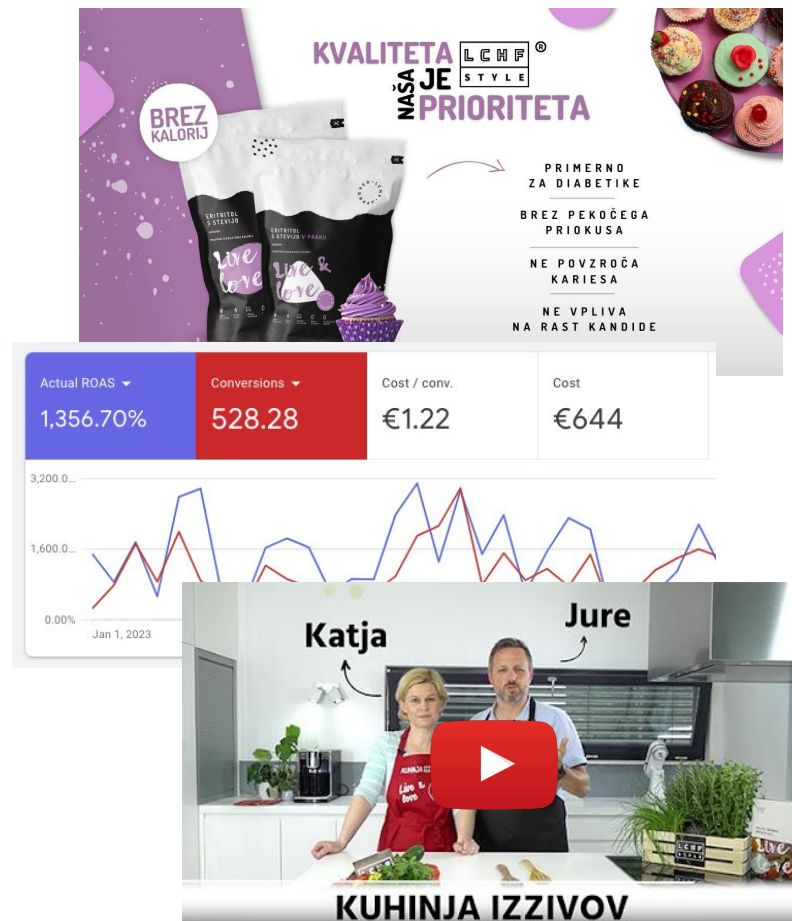

Through Google advertising, we reached our target audience at the moment they search for LCHF products. The campaign enabled precise targeting based on demographic characteristics, location, and user interests, increasing the likelihood of conversions.

Unified Visual Identity and Key Visual for Ads

With a carefully designed and consistently used visual identity, the company expresses its identity, values, and message.

New Cooking TV Show

The show enabled wider recognition of the company among the target audience, leading to increased exposure and interest in their products.
